NON-PROFIT SPACE CAMARILLO HOSPICE CERTIFIED FARMERS MARKET RULES AND REGULATIONS

This is the policy that controls the use of the “non-profit space” at the Camarillo Hospice Certified Farmers Market (CHCFM).

Policy on Space for Non-Profit Organizations at the Camarillo Hospice Certified Farmers Market. The Camarillo Hospice Certified Farmers Market (CHCFM) shall provide one space on Saturdays for use by one non-profit organization on a first-come, first-served based on the following requirements and provisions:

1. A representative of the non-profit organization shall request use of the space from the Non-Profit Space Manager, Ruff Smith, telephone 805-987-3347 or e-mail clayruff@verizon.net, no more than 90 days nor less than five (5) days before the intended use;
2. The non-profit organization does not sell anything in competition with Farmers’ Market vendors;
3. The Non-Profit Space Manager shall issue a confirmation of reservation to the approved non-profit organization, which must be presented at the Camarillo Hospice Certified Farmers’ Market on the approved Saturday prior to setting up in the “non-profit space;”
4. Such space may be preempted for use by Camarillo Hospice; and
5. The decision of the Non-Profit Space Manager shall be final.
